Giving Made Easy!

Our agencies and ministries are faces of hope to so many people during this pandemic. Your pledge or one time gift is a tangible way to be a 'face of Christ' to the world through your support of the agencies and ministries which rely on this appeal for the funding each year. And you, in turn, share in the joy of bringing hope into the lives of those we serve.

Text giving is hands down the easiest and most secure way to give. If you know how to send a text message, you can make a gift to Partners in Charity in seconds on your phone . Best yet, our parishes, St.Brigid and Our Lady of the Assumption, will receive credit. Text donate to 84576. In addition to giving you can also view the 2022 appeal video. You can also make your gift online at partners-charity.net.
Gift envelopes are available in the pews and at the back of both churches.

Thank you for your continued support! We couldn't do it without you!

Holy Saturday Morning Reflection

The following is the 2nd of a 4 part Lenten/Easter reflection written by our brother, John Piselli, on what it must have been like for John the disciple of Jesus.

Holy Saturday Morning… The Sabbath...like none before it… and none after.

The noise of the bustle of people in the street and the unusual cadence and excitement for a Sabbath morning, wake me on my mat. As my eyes open I see the light pouring through the cracks of the boards with which we sealed the windows. The familiar sunrise and its early morning light was making its way over the floor from the windows that are facing east toward the temple mount. The rays of light were so strong after a dark stormy night and overcast day. I was struck by its beauty.

Looking around I saw Mother at rest, her face held a new peace as she rested. Magdalene, faced away from me, her stillness interrupted by movement to pad away silent tears.

Flooded by the events of the past few days my mind raced through image after image, the arrest, seeing Jesus taken away in chains, His captors brutalizing him as they dragged Him to the high priest, telling mother of the arrest, running to capture a glimpse of the trial. We could see He was beaten and watched Him being spit on by the priests, guards and the crowd. The lashing post, we could peek through the break in the fence to see Him flogged nearly to death by the Roman dogs of war. Barabbas… Barabbas, he is a murderer...Not Barabbas, Jesus, Crucify Him, CRUCIFY HIM!... The chanting of the crowd in my mind was clear… it jarred me, I sat up and shouted… Noooooo!

My scream woke Mother and frightened Magdalene from her seated position on the mat….

Mother spoke the only word that could possibly let me know this was not some nightmare, some bad dream brought on by some demonic force.

"Son...." She spoke and time froze. I could not hear the rest of what was said next… I was looking up at the blood drenched and savagely beaten frame of my friend, my Lord. His toes were trembling and stacked one foot over the other dripping blood from the nail driven through both feet into the wedge of wood on the cross. He spoke…

"Son, behold your Mother, Mother behold your son.." In that moment I promised in my heart to take care of Mother, widow and now orphaned herself by the men who had Jesus killed…

I could feel myself regaining my presence, Mother now kneeling near my mat to comfort me still speaking she reached out to me putting her hand on my shoulder. I watched it all in slow motion. And she continued…

"… the promises He made…"

She was done and I missed all of what she said… "Mother? Promises? Tell me again…."

Her eyes fixed on mine and there was no need for words as I felt the spirit stirring and my soul knew what she had said and though the aching of my heart remain. Some how on this Sabbath day I had a moment of peace.

"Son...come...the Bride Groom is away... we must pray…"

To each of you with love in the expectant Joy of the resurrection...Love John
